Setumbu Hill is the name of a hill located about 4 km west of Borobudur temple. It is one of the best places to watch the Borobudur sunrise from an altitude of 400 m above sea level. The warmth of the sun in the morning reveals the fog blanket that covers Borobudur Temple and wakes it from its place. While we enjoy the beautiful sunrise at Setumbu we have a cup coffee or tea to drink. After watching sunrise at Setumbu Hill we continue to visit the wonderful view of Borobudur temple. We have two hours to see Borobudur.
